Press Conference

International Day to Protect Education from Attac

The International Academic Campaign (IACA) held a press conference at its headquarters on the occasion of the International Day to Protect Education from Attack, which falls on September 9. This was with the participation of the Global Campaign for Education, the Education Coalition, the Palestinian Teachers Union, and the Ministry of Education and Higher Education. At the end of the press conference, a statement was issued calling for an immediate ceasefire and immediate measures to protect schools, and the need to provide urgent support and assistance to save education in Palestine. It also called on member states of the United Nations General Assembly to quickly sign the “Safe Schools Declaration,” which calls for implementing the guidelines for protecting schools and universities from military use during armed conflict.

The International Academy grants the Anti-Occupation and Apartheid Medal to the spirit of the martyr Aisha Nur

The International Academic Campaign (IACA) granted the Anti-Occupation and Anti-Apartheid Medal, First Class, to the spirit of the martyr of Turkish origin, Ayşe Nur Ezgi, in gratitude to her pure spirit.

The medal was received on behalf of the martyr's family by Turkish Ambassador Mr. Ismail Oglu. There is also a demand to hold Israel accountable for these crimes against Palestinian civilians and international solidarity activists. The Turkish Ambassador also gave thanks to the academic campaign delegation, stressing that the Turkish Republic will always stand with the rights of the Palestinian people until their independent state is achieved. Ambassador Oglu also expressed his deep sorrow not only for the soul of the martyr Aisha, but also for the martyrdom of thousands of Palestinian civilians in Gaza and the West Bank as a result of the policy of genocide against the Palestinians.

A Seminar for a Scientific Research Entitled Aspects of Apartheid in Israeli Policies
